Welcome to our preacher

Our October retreat at Pleshey will be led by Fr David Darling, who is our preacher today. Fr David has a background in nursing and has been a Franciscan friar. He now serves in parishes as well as being a spiritual director and works as a tutor on a spiritual direction course. He will be available after the Eucharist today to tell us more about the theme of this year's retreat, answer any other questions and describe what retreat is all about. The retreat is 13-15 October 2017 and more details will follow soon.

Rota news!

The new rota has now been drafted for the next six weeks, and from now on the rota will only appear on ChurchDesk. This will mean that the rota is much more accurate, and people can be much more in control of arranging changes that suit them and their availability.

So what happens? If you are one of the generous people who are on the rota, fulfilling a ministry undertaking one of the jobs such as reading, coffee, wardening etc, you will have been contacted by ChurchDesk to inform you of the dates that you are down for. If you want to make any changes, you can inform the group you are in and ask people to swap. ChurchDesk will also send you a reminder of your rota duty 72 hours before.

Help! Like any new system there are bound to be a few hiccups. Don't worry! If you need any help, or want a bit of simple training ChurchDesk guru Tristan will help you. Just let him know.

What if I don't use a computer? We know some of you don't use a computer. That is fine. Please make sure Tristan knows and he will help you stay in touch.

I'm a Sunday warden – how will I know who is doing what duty? There will be a print out of the Sunday duties (placed the day before to ensure accuracy) in the usual place to guide you.

Weekly sheet deadline

Please send all notices for the weekly sheet to Tristan by Tuesday midday:

428	Love divine all lives excelling
457	My God how wonderful you are
716	We have a gospel to proclaim

COLLECT

God of truth, help us to keep your law of love and to walk in ways of wisdom, that we may find true life in Jesus Christ your Son, to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be praise and honour, glory and might, now and in all eternity. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the of Book of Exodus (19:2-8a)

They had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. Then Moses went up to God; the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.'

So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the Lord had commanded him. The people all answered as one: 'Everything that the Lord has spoken we will do.'

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 100

Response (all): O be joyful in the Lord, O be joyful, all the earth.

O be joyful in the Lord, all the earth;
serve the Lord with gladness
and come before his presence with a song.

Response (all)

Know that the Lord is God;
it is he that has made us and we are his;
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

Response (all)

Enter his gates with thanksgiving
and his courts with praise;
give thanks to him and bless his name.

Response (all)

SECOND READING

A reading from St Paul's letter to the Romans (5:1-8)

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Choir: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

All: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Cantor: Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.

You have the words of eternal life.

All: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

GOSPEL READING

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew (9:36-10:8)

When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.' Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax-collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near." Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER
