The schedule for the day will look like this: 9.52 train from Paddington 10.50 arrive Oxford 11.30 Coffee and welcome at SSH, followed by tour 12.30 mass 1pm (ish) lunch at a local place 5pm Evensong at an Oxford College (optional).

“Nearly New Drinks” 25th April

It is our tradition to occasionally gather new (ish) people to our church to meet for tea or drinks at the Rectory. This provides an opportunity for us all to get to know each other a bit better, for us to tell you more about the church in a way that can be easier in a smaller group, and also to answer any questions that you may have about any aspect of Hornsey Parish Church life. Sometimes, people have not been able to attend in the past, or maybe an invitation hasn't been given in the way that it ought to have been, and so people attending are probably better described as 'nearly new', so hence the name. I do hope you may be able to join us on Wednesday 25th February 6-7.30pm.

NEW LOOK PARISH RETREAT

Our annual retreat has a new look, with a new venue and a new time of the year. Our retreat takes place from Friday 29th June to Sunday 1st July at Boars Hill Priory, just outside of Oxford. With lovely walks and beautiful countryside, there will be ample opportunity to enjoy the longest days of the year. And retreating at a Carmelite Priory means we will be supported by deep tranquility, ably led by Nicola Mason an experienced leader of retreats. The retreat is open to everyone, and will cost £140 fully inclusive of all board and lodging. Public transport is straightforward. Ask Annie, Debbie, Rachel or Clare for more details. (Bursaries are available - see Fr Bruce).

TODAY'S MUSIC

Hymns

680 This joyful Eastertide
714 We hail Thy presence glorious
67 Be still for the presence of the Lord
19 All my hope on God is founded

COLLECT

Risen Christ, you filled your disciples with boldness and fresh hope: strengthen us to proclaim your risen life and fill us with your peace, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles (3:12-19)

When Peter saw it, he addressed the people, 'You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you. 'And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out,

This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Choir: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

All: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Cantor: I am the first and the last, says the Lord, and the living one. I was dead and behold I am alive for evermore.

All: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke (24: 36b-48)

While they were talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, 'Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.' And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence. Then he said to them, 'These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.' Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, 'Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.
