Mother Anna writes:

Thank you to everyone for your kindness, generosity and support at the end of last month, when I was ordained priest and then presided for the first time at the Eucharist. It was fantastic to see so many of you at the ordination service - thank you, and thank you to everyone who was at the Eucharist service on Sunday evening. I am still full of awe at the joy and privilege of being a priest, standing at God's table and inviting you to share in the Sacrament. To have so many of you there to share that with me was a blessing indeed. Thank you also for the outpouring of cards and gifts, both the beautiful paten and chalice you gave me as a community and the individual gifts and messages I received. I had the most marvelous weekend in which I saw and felt God at work in my life and in this church community. I am so grateful that I was asked to come here as your curate. Thank you all.
