Farewell to David

It is that time of the year again when we say farewell to our Pastoral Assistants. David has been an absolute star, and we will miss him greatly. As you may know, he is going to live with his community, the Society of St Francis, once again, and will be moving to Northumberland. We are joined today by Br Samuel, and Br Christopher Martin, two friars from the same community. If you would like to contribute to his leaving gift please use the envelopes provided.

Keeping in touch...

We really value the opportunities you give us to keep you in the loop with news from Hornsey Parish Church. We can only do this if the contact details we have for you are accurate, so please advise us of any changes. See back of weekly Sheet for contact details.

Food Bank

The last two collections for the Food Bank have brought in approaching 500 kgs of food. When one considers that a tin of something or other barely reaches 500 grams this represent a jolly good show and the workers at the Foodbank who now number in total a goodly crowd are relieved that they can operate without having to worry of becoming like Mother Hubbard. We also have to thank collections made at the YMCA as well for these vast quantities. Many thanks to everyone for your help. Please keep the donations coming.

All Creatures Great and Small

Don't forget to save the date for our pets extravaganza on Saturday 15th September, 3-5pm. A short pets blessing service, with afternoon tea, bar, competitions! Will the fun will never end?

FIRST READING

*A reading from the second Book of the Kings
(4:42-44)*

A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing food from the first fruits to the man of God: twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. Elisha said, 'Give it to the people and let them eat.' But his servant said, 'How can I set this before a hundred people?' So he repeated, 'Give it to the people and let them eat, for thus says the Lord, "They shall eat and have some left." ' He set it before them, they ate, and had some left, according to the word of the Lord.

This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

PSALM 145

Response (all): I will bless you and praise you forever, O God my King

All your works praise you, O lord, and your faithful servants bless you. They tell of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your mighty power.

Response (all)

To make known to all peoples your mighty acts and the glorious splendour of your kingdom. Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom; your dominion endures throughout all ages.

Response (all)

The eyes of all wait upon you, O Lord, and you give them their food in due season. You open wide your hand and fill all things living with plenty. The Lord is righteous in all his ways and loving in all his works.

Response (all)

SECOND READING

*A reading from St Paul's letter to the Ephesians
(3:14-21)*

For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name. I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, for ever and ever. Amen.

This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

All: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

All: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

GOSPEL READING

Hear the Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to John (6:1-21)

After this Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming towards him, Jesus said to Philip, 'Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?' He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, 'Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little.' One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, 'There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?' Jesus said, 'Make the people sit down.' Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, 'Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost.' So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, 'This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world.' When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself. When evening came, his disciples went down to the lake, got into a boat, and started across the lake to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. The lake became rough because a strong wind was blowing. When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the lake and coming near the boat, and they were terrified. But he said to them, 'It is I; do not be afraid.' Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land towards which they were going.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.
