

NOTICES

Fr Bruce's Study leave

Fr Bruce is now away on Study Leave until November. In his absence, Mthr Anna and the Churchwardens will be keeping things going so please let them know if there is anything they can help with. We pray that Fr Bruce will have a restful and refreshing sabbatical.

Mothers Union

We meet at 2pm in the Church Car Park and travel by W5 bus to Waterlow Park to have afternoon tea in Lauderdale House this Monday, 9th September, followed, weather permitting, a walk round the Park. All are invited to join us.

Holy Innocents Autumn Fair

Holy Innocents Church are hosting their Autumn Fair this Saturday 14th September, 11am-4pm. Do go along to enjoy delicious Caribbean food, a variety of stalls, trips up the church tower and a magic show (11.15am). All welcome.

Christmas Market

Next Sunday 15th September the first meeting about the Christmas Market will be taking place - please join us in the Lady Chapel after the Parish Eucharist.

We are looking for prizes for the Christmas Market grand draw! If you would be able to contribute some money towards buying prizes such as a John Lewis token, please give your contribution to Mother Anna, Lesley or Lucy.

We will also be glad to receive donations of jam jars – please leave them at the back of church. Thank you!

Big Night Out

Our irregular night out at the pub returns on Thursday 19th September. Join us from 8pm at the Three Compasses on Hornsey High Street for a drink and good company. Everyone 18 and over is very welcome to join us - speak to Mthr Anna or Lucy about it or just turn up.

Parish Fellowship

Parish Fellowship will be meeting at 2pm on Tuesday 8th October. It's always important to air perspectives on current events and this meeting will aim to have a guided programme where we can share opinion on current events and also insert ideas for programme gaps for the forthcoming year.

Open Day

Exciting news - on Saturday 2 November we will be having an Open Day at church, inviting the local community in to see what our church is all about. This will be an all-hands-on-deck event and an important fundraiser and publicity moment for the church, so pop it in your diary and come and talk to Mthr Anna about how you can help.

Church cleaner

In recent weeks we have been without a paid cleaner for the church, and the work has been done by a wonderful and generous volunteer while we have been trying to find a replacement. Our efforts have been fruitless - if you have a good cleaner or know of one who, crucially, will be willing to issue an invoice and be paid by cheque or directly into a bank account (ie not cash in hand) please let one of the churchwardens know.

HPC East

We are blessed in our parish in having a wide variety of local neighbourhoods, built in different eras to meet different housing needs. In recent months we have been thinking hard about how to reach the neighbourhoods in the East of the parish, furthest away from our church, to share God's love with the people who live there. We are currently calling this work HPC East. We will give updates in the weekly sheet and elsewhere about this work. And our first is the news that Patricia and Elle-Mae have started running occasional "pop-up" drop-ins on the Lightfoot Estate where they live, welcoming local people with hot drinks and cakes and inviting them to sit and chat with their neighbours. Hornsey Police were so impressed with this that they tweeted about them: "Great to see these lovely people today on the Lightfoot Estate N8. They are here on behalf of the Hornsey Parish Church to help the local community in any way they can". Massive thanks to Patricia and Elle-Mae, and to Zane who also helped out.

COLLECT

God of constant mercy, who sent your Son to save us: remind us of your goodness, increase your grace within us, that our thankfulness may grow, through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be praise and honour, glory and might, now and in all eternity. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from Deuteronomy (30:15-20)

See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity. If you obey the commandments of the Lord your God that I am commanding you today, by loving the Lord your God, walking in his ways, and observing his commandments, decrees, and ordinances, then you shall live and become numerous, and the Lord your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess. But if your heart turns away and you do not hear, but are led astray to bow down to other gods and serve them, I declare to you today that you shall perish; you shall not live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess. I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live, loving the Lord your God, obeying him, and holding fast to him; for that means life to you and length of days, so that you may live in the land that the Lord swore to give to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

PSALM 1

Choir: For the Lord knows the way, the way of the righteous.

All: For the Lord knows the way, the way of the righteous.

Blessed are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked, nor lingered in the way of sinners, nor sat in the assembly of the scornful.

Their delight is in the law of the Lord and they meditate on his law day and night.

All: For the Lord knows the way, the way of the righteous.

Like a tree planted by streams of water bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither, whatever they do, it shall prosper. As for the wicked, it is not so with them; they are like chaff which the wind blows away.

All: For the Lord knows the way, the way of the righteous.

Therefore the wicked shall not be able to stand in the judgement, nor the sinner in the congregation of the righteous. For the Lord knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked shall perish.

All: For the Lord knows the way, the way of the righteous.

SECOND READING

A reading from the book of Philemon (1-21)

Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother,

To Philemon our dear friend and co-worker, to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in your house:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

When I remember you in my prayers, I always thank my God because I hear of your love for all the saints and your faith towards the Lord Jesus. I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective when you perceive all the good that we may do for Christ. I have indeed received much joy and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, my brother.

For this reason, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do your duty, yet I would rather appeal to you on the basis of love—and I, Paul, do this as an old man, and now also as a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for my child, Onesimus, whose father I have become during my imprisonment. Formerly he was useless to you, but now he is indeed useful both to you and to me. I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you. I wanted to keep him with me, so that he might be of service to me in your place during my imprisonment for the gospel; but I preferred to do nothing without your consent, in order that your good deed might be voluntary and not something forced. Perhaps this is the reason he was separated from you for a while, so that you might have him back for ever, no longer as a slave but as more than a slave, a beloved brother—especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

So if you consider me your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. If he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge that to my account. I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay it. I say nothing about your owing me even your own self. Yes, brother, let me have this benefit from you in the Lord! Refresh my heart in Christ. Confident of your obedience, I am writing to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Choir: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

All: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Cantor: I am the way, the truth and the life, says the Lord. No one comes to the Father except through me.

All: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

GOSPEL READING

Hear the Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke (14:25-33)

Now large crowds were travelling with him; and he turned and said to them, ‘Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, saying, “This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.” Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.

Response: Praise to you O Christ
